BHREV

Building Healthy Relationships to End Violence

Research. Translation. Mentorship. Impact.

BHREV MENTORING CORE INITIATIVE

FOUNDATIONS COLLECTIVE

Fall 2026 Doctoral Student Mentoring Cohort

Three conversations. A community of peers and mentors.

Space to think about your work - and where it is taking you.
For doctoral students who have completed required coursework and whose scholarship connects to violence prevention, healthy relationships, or related areas.

| | |
|---|---|
| SEPT 1712:30-2:00 PM ET | Doing Violence & Relational Health Research in a Politicized Climate |
| OCT 1512:30-2:00 PM ET | Methods, Data & Translation: How the Work Gets Done |
| NOV 1212:30-2:00 PM ET | Where This Work Can Take You: Academic, Community & Hybrid Futures |

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

- Doctoral students who have completed their program's required coursework
- Scholars working in violence, healthy relationships, relational health, or connected areas
- Applicants able to participate in all three virtual sessions
- Students seeking peer connection, mentorship, and concrete guidance
- Participants willing to pay mentorship forward as future peer mentors

A SMALL, RELATIONAL COHORT WITH ROOM FOR DIFFERENT PATHWAYS

We welcome applicants across disciplines, methodological traditions, identities, institutions, and academic, community-based, and hybrid career interests.

APPLICATIONS OPEN FOR FALL 2026

Apply to join the inaugural Foundations Collective cohort.